

June 29, 1963 – February 14, 2009

Officer James Frederick Norman
Cobb County Police Department, Georgia
End of Watch: Saturday, February 14, 2009
Age: 45
Years on The Job: NA
Badge Number: NA
Cause of Death: Vehicular assault

Officer Freddie Norman died after injuries he received 21 years ago when his patrol car was struck by a teenage drunk driver as he responded to an emergency call. The accident left him as a quadriplegic. His death was determined to be a direct result of the injuries sustained in the crash.

The drunk driver was sentenced to six months in a halfway house and was forbidden from ever holding a Georgia driver's license. Officer Norman is survived by his wife and three children.
